INTRODUCTION

Just as the NBA has come a long way from set shots and canvas sneakers, NBA® Live '95 is advanced far beyond previous b-ball vidgames. Brand-new from the ground up, it maintains the features and strategy of previous EA SPORTS NBA titles and adds a fresh new perspective, all-new animations, incredible sound and graphics, and more options than ever before. But enough marketing-speak—let's take a look at the feature list so you can get right to the game and decide for yourself if it's the most advanced basketball game on the planet.

- Exhibition, Season, and Playoff play, with three battery-backed slots to save Season and Playoff series, player statistics, and user names and statistics.

- All 27 NBA teams (each with realistic play styles), 2 All-Star teams, and 4 Custom teams.

- Complete NBA rosters, with each player rated in 16 skill categories. Complete 1993-1994 stats. (So put away that sports almanac; it's in the game.)

- 30 degree court view for better vision and minimal player overlapping.

- All-new player animations, including jump shots, jump-hooks, layups, about a zillion slams, hand-checking, stealing, falling, rebounding, and showboating. Even the bench players and crowd are animated.

- Flexible strategy and options, including difficulty, rules settings, offensive and defensive sets, rebounding and defensive pressure options, individual defensive matchups, double-teaming, and player trades.

- Up to five human players can play cooperatively or competitively with the Multi-Player Adapter.

- TV-style graphics and presentation.

Custom teams can only be used in Exhibition games.

To play with a Custom team:

- Select any of the four Custom teams (SLAMMERS, BLOCKERS, JAMMERS, or STEALERS) from the Team Select screen. Press START, and the Custom Teams screen appears.

3. Highlight a player from an NBA team and press B to replace the original player with the highlighted player. You return to the roster of the Custom team.

- To cancel the transaction, highlight the player originally selected and press B.
- To view more stats, Control Pad left/right.

Player Setup screen

A symbol for every Controller plugged into the system appears on this screen. Up to five players may play if a Multi-Player Adapter is attached. In addition to selecting the teams players control, you can select, enter, and delete user names to personalize your controller so your user stats can be tracked no matter what team you control.

Player names

Control arrow

- To change the setting for your Controller, Control Pad left/right to position the controller symbol under either team to select that team, or in the middle to select computer control.

- To toggle the control method, press L or R. When the control arrow points up, Control Pad diagonally to move up and down the court. When the control arrow points diagonally, Control Pad left/right to move up and down the court.

- To cycle through player names, Control Pad up/down. Press START to select the highlighted name.

- To enter a new player name, highlight NEW and press B. Control Pad up/down or left/right to select a letter, and then press B to advance to the next letter.

  To delete a letter, press X. When you've entered the last letter, press START to enter the name.

- Press any button to continue. The TEAM MATCHUPS screen appears.

  The TEAM MATCHUPS screen compares the two teams. One to three basketballs indicate relative strength in each of five categories.

The Tip-off

Every game starts with a tip-off between the centers.

- To jump for the tip-off, press X.

PLAYING THE GAME

You control the man over the star. Depending on which Controller you're using, the star has a different color:

Player 1   Blue star
Player 2   Red star
Player 3   Green star
Player 4   Cyan star
Player 5   Purple star

Just like in the NBA, offense and defense require different skills in NBA Live '95. While the Control Pad is always used to move your player, the buttons have different functions on offense and defense. Learn the controls first, and then you can focus on your basketball skills and strategy.

If your player is offscreen, an arrow the same color as your control star points toward him from the edge of the screen. Press the Control Pad in the opposite direction to bring him back onscreen.

OFFENSE

Moving With and Without the Ball

- Press the Control Pad in the direction that you want to move. You continue to move and dribble as long as you hold down the Control Pad. When you release the Control Pad, you stop moving, but maintain your dribble.

- When you start to pass or shoot the ball, you stop dribbling. Once you stop dribbling, you cannot use the Control Pad to move again, or the refs call traveling (see Violations and Turnovers on p. 30).

- To run faster, hold down the L or R buttons while moving. This kicks you into Turbo mode, where you may be able to catch another player from behind or drive to the bucket more effectively.

If you don't have the ball, you can hand-check your defender to get better position:

- To hand-check, press A. To hand-check especially hard, hold L or R while pressing A (the ref may call you for a foul, though).

EA TIP   When more than one human player is on the same team, move without the ball to set screens for each other. For a truly nasty screen, press A to keep the defensive player away.

Passing

- To pass to the default receiver, press B. To retain control of the passer (perfect for give and go plays), hold B until the receiver catches the ball.

- To pass to a specific player, use the Control Pad to aim the pass while pressing B.

- To throw a bullet pass that is less likely to be intercepted, hold L or R while pressing B.

- To throw an alley-oop pass, throw the ball to a player with a clear path to the basket. If he is in a position to jump for an alley-oop, an alley-oop play is automatically executed.

- To call for a pass when you don't have the ball, press Y. If a computer-controlled player has the ball, he passes it to you. If your buddy has the ball, Y has no effect.

EA TIP   Since you can throw the ball faster than you can run, passing is the quickest way to move the ball on the court. Ball movement is the key to offensive success—NBA defenses can contain almost any single player, but good passing gives fits to even the best defense. Use an inside/outside game between a big man and a small man to draw a double team, and then kick the ball to the open player. Rotate the ball from strong to weak side, and then shoot quickly before the defenders recover.

Shooting

Players shoot differently depending on who and where they are. For instance, when shooting from the outside, the player will try a jumpshot. Closer in, and he may try a hook shot. Near the hoop he'll try one of a variety of slams (assuming he does slam; you won't see Muggsy soaring above the rim) or layups.

- To shoot, press and hold A. Release the ball at the top of your jump by releasing the button.

- To fake a shot, tap A.

Free Throws

Use the T-Meter™ to aim your shots from the line. The T-Meter appears when your player goes to the charity stripe.

Press A to stop the ball in the center of the meter.

The ball moves left/right on the horizontal bar to control the left/right accuracy of your shot.

- Press A when the ball is in the center of the bar to aim your shot.

The ball moves up/down on the vertical bar to control the distance of your free throw.

- Press A when the ball is in the center of the vertical bar to set the distance of your shot. The player shoots the ball, and normal play resumes.

The speed the basketball cursor travels on the bars of the T-Meter is controlled by the player's Free Throw rating—the better the rating, the slower the ball travels.

Rebounding

When you don't have the ball, you can crash the boards.

- To jump to grab a rebound, press X.

Playcalling

You can call an offensive play before inbounding the ball. Each Offensive Set has unique plays numbered from one to eight—see the Poster for details.

- Before inbounding the ball, press L or R + Control Pad. Control Pad up = play 1, diagonal up/right = play 2, right = play 3, and so on.

- To select a play, release L or R while still pressing the appropriate Control Pad direction.

- Inbound the ball and follow the Poster diagram steps to execute the play. Computer-controlled players will move as outlined on the diagram, but you must control the actions of the ballhandler.

Shot Clock

In NBA basketball you have 24 seconds from the time you inbound or gain possession of the ball to get a shot off that hits the rim. The shot clock is reset every time the ball hits the rim. If you don't get a shot off before the 24 second clock expires, the referee calls a shot clock violation and the other team gets possession of the ball.

The shot clock appears at the bottom left of the screen when there are 10 or fewer seconds remaining to shoot.

DEFENSE

Offense may make the highlight reels, but defense wins games (just ask the Knicks).

Switching Defenders

You can switch to the defender nearest the ball at any time, assuming he isn't controlled by another human player.

- To take control of the defender closest to the ball (between the ball and basket), press B.

- To take control of a specific defender, Control Pad in the direction of the defender and press B.

⚡TIP Your first order on defense is to stop the ball, so get a man on the ballhandler before he reaches the top of the key. This cuts off easy penetration and slows down the offense.

⚡TIP If you want to control the closest man to the ball, make sure you're not pressing the Control Pad when you press B.

Steals

When you're close to the ballhandler, you can try to reach in and steal the ball.

- To try to steal the ball from an opponent, press Y.

You have to be close to the man with the ball to pull off a steal, but don't get too aggressive, or you may get whistled for a foul.

Shot Blocking and Rebounding

You can jump to try to block a shot or gather a rebound.

- To jump to reject a shot or work the glass, press X.

⚡TIP There's a reason certain NBA players gobble up more rebounds than other players, and it's not size. It's inside position. Hand-check (A) if you need to, but make sure you're positioned to grab the ball.

PAUSE MENU

The Pause menu appears whenever you press START during a game. You must pause the game to call a time out, make a substitution, or choose from other menu options. The TIME OUT and SUBSTITUTION options are not always available—for instance, you can only make a substitution when the play clock is stopped. When options are grayed out, they cannot be selected.

Time Outs

You can pause the game at any time, but you must have possession of the ball to call a time out. The number of time outs remaining is listed after TIME OUT in the Pause menu. You get 7 time outs per game.

To call a time out:

- Press START to pause the game. The Pause menu appears.

- Highlight TIME OUT and press B. The SUBSTITUTION screen appears, and your team is charged with a time out.

Substitution

You can make player substitutions when the play clock is stopped between periods, by a time out, or by a violation such as a foul or out of bounds. When the clock is not stopped, the SUBSTITUTION option isn't available.

To make a substitution:

1. Pause the game and call a time out, or if the clock is already stopped, pause the game and select SUBSTITUTION from the Pause menu. The SUBSTITUTION screen appears. The 5 players currently in the game are listed in the screen.

- To toggle between the two teams, press L or R. (You can only make substitutions for the team you control, however.)

- To cycle between game stats, player ratings, 1993-94 stats, and season/playoff stats (if applicable), press X. See Player Ratings and Statistics on p. 23.

- To cycle through the available statistics/ratings for the players, Control Pad left/right.

2. To highlight a player for substitution, Control Pad up/down.

3. To substitute for the highlighted player, press B. A screen listing the available bench players appears.

4. Control Pad up/down to highlight a player, and press B to insert that player into the lineup. If you decide not to make a substitution, press START or SELECT to return to the Pause menu.

EA TIP Familiarize yourself with the player ratings in the SUBSTITUTION screen to determine the offensive strengths and weaknesses of your players. If a player has no outside game, for instance, don't throw up bricks from long range.

Replay

You can replay the last few seconds of action during the game. The replay video is lost if you leave the game screen (to make a substitution, for instance).

- To go directly to the Replay screen during game action, press SELECT.

- To go to the Replay screen while the game is paused, highlight REPLAY from the Pause menu and press B. An overlay displaying the game clock and the button functions appears at the bottom of the screen.

- To move the center of the Replay screen, Control Pad in any direction.

- To play in reverse, press Y. To rewind at high speed, press and hold Y.

- To move frame by frame in reverse, press and hold X.

- To play forward, press A. To fast forward, press and hold A.

- To move forward frame by frame, press and hold B.

- To toggle between normal and reverse angle, press SELECT.

Season/Playoff Statistics

Season and playoff statistics are the same as game statistics, except that they are accumulated over an entire Season or Playoff series rather than a single game.

OFFENSIVE SETS

Box

This set is useful for getting the ball to two strong post players. The Box starts the two post players high, but they end up slashing, cutting, or flashing to good post positions in the paint. All plays start in a box alignment, but any number of options can be run, thus keeping the defense off balance.

Inside Triangle

This offense, used by the Bulls championship teams of 91-93, gives great inside movement involving three players in the key. With a variety of screens being set between the three players, you're sure to get a good shot. The big players are kept close to the basket to allow better rebounding, and many times your better inside players get isolated on the block.

Sideline Triangle

This offense provides excellent perimeter movement. Great spacing provides opportunities for inside play, but more importantly, the opportunity for players to drive to the basket. Constant moving, screening, and cutting make the Sideline Triangle hard to defend, but offensive rebounding is limited with this offense.

Motion

This offense is geared to give good floor balance and lots of movement by all the players. If you run the offense patiently, you will always get an open shot. The pattern of player movement is somewhat predictable, however, so your opponent may get wise defensively.

High Post

The High Post offense gives you good floor balance, allowing you to rebound well offensively. The two post players set screens to give themselves good post position, but more importantly, they free up perimeter players for open shots. The best feature of this offense is that it keeps your big players close to the basket.

3 Point

This offense gives you the opportunity to score points in a hurry if you're behind or just want to blow someone out. The offense will give you the shot, but you still need players who can hit the trey. The Three Point offense stretches out the defense and opens the floor for driving. Make your shots, because it's tough to rebound.

Isolation

A great offense for one-on-one or two-on-two play. Use Isolation to get your best player the ball or exploit a weak defensive player on the opposition. It allows your best player to create shots for himself or other players. If you don't get a shot early from this play, your other players must hit their shots.

Automatic

The computer chooses one of the team's two offensive sets automatically. This is the default setting.

DEFENSIVE SETS

Full Court Press

In a Full Court Press you play man-to-man defense over the entire court. Used most often by teams that are behind, it creates turnovers and up tempo play. You don't necessarily have to be trailing to use it. It makes the team take more time off the clock bringing the ball up the floor, leaving less time to shoot.

Half Court Trap

Two defenders try to 'trap' the ballhandler and force him to give up the ball to someone else, while the other three defenders try to shut down the passing lanes. This gives the defense a chance for a turnover, as well as taking the ball out of the hands of the primary ballhandler. The Half Court Trap forces the tempo of the game, and is well-suited to providing fast break buckets off of steals. However, you risk giving up easy shots if the ballhandler beats the trap.

Half Court Press

This pressure defense uses the half court line and the sideline as a sixth defender while attacking teams as they bring the ball across half court. The goal is to force turnovers and quick shots, but you must be careful, because you can also give up easy baskets. The extra pressure can wear down the opposing point guard, and make the offensive team work for every pass and inch of the court.

Quarter Court

In this defense you play back and protect the basket so that your team doesn't give up any easy shots. The Quarter Court is a conservative defense that forces the offense to execute perfectly to find open shots or lanes to drive to the hoop. You can rest players and keep players out of foul trouble—perfect for when you're ahead. This defense won't cause many turnovers, but it does provide decent rebounding position.

Automatic

The computer chooses the appropriate defensive set automatically. This is the default setting.

TEAM DESCRIPTIONS

Each NBA team is assigned two offensive sets that the computer chooses from when controlling the team (or when the Automatic offensive set is chosen). When you control the team, you can change the offensive throughout the game.

INFRACTIONS

When the refs catch an infraction on the court, they blow the whistle to stop play, and the violation is displayed onscreen.

Fouls

An offensive player gets to take free throws as follows:

- When a player is fouled after the defense commits 5 or more team fouls in a quarter, the offensive player gets 2 free throws. Offensive fouls don't count as team fouls.
- When a player is fouled in the act of shooting, he goes to the line. The basket counts if it is good, and the player gets one free throw. If the basket missed, the player gets 2 free throws.

Violations and Turnovers

Defensive fouls	Defensive Fouls may be called on steals, hand-checking, bumping, and shooting fouls.
Offensive fouls	If you have the ball and run into a defensive player who is set, Charging may be called. If you run into a player or hand-check when you don't have the ball, an Offensive Foul may be called. Offensive fouls don't count as team fouls.
Out of bounds	If the ball or the player with the ball leave the boundaries of the court, it is a turnover.
Backcourt	Once you advance the ball over the halfcourt line, you can't take the ball back over the halfcourt line into the backcourt.
Traveling	When you stop dribbling, you can't resume. Once you pull up to shoot or pass, you can't use the Control Pad to move again, or traveling is called.
Goaltending	Once a shot has touched the backboard or started downward, it cannot be touched by any player until it hits the rim.
Three second violation	An offensive player can't stay in the key for longer than 3 seconds at any one time. If the ball touches the rim, the player can stay in the paint for 3 more seconds.

24 second shot clock violation	From the moment you gain possession of the ball, you have 24 seconds to get off a shot that hits the rim. Each time the ball hits the rim or a change of possession occurs, the clock is reset. The 24 second clock appears at the bottom left of the screen when there are 10 or fewer seconds left.
5 second inbound violation	You have 5 seconds to get the ball in play when inbounding.
10 second backcourt violation	You must cross the halfcourt line within 10 seconds after an inbounds play in the backcourt.
